

Technical Support Policy

As a customer, you have complete access to a reliable team of professionals who have the technical knowledge and experience you require, supported by a commitment to reliable service and customer care. We understand the urgency that drives your need for support.

SMA Technologies' Technical Support team is here when you need us. Our normal business hours are Monday–Friday, 8AM–5PM CT.

Customer Support: Service Level Agreement

These are our customer support priority levels, definitions, and response times:

Priority 1

The production system is down or inaccessible, or there is a critical business process failure or critical performance degradation impacting production.

Priority 2

A non-critical production function is failing with no workaround and requires immediate attention.

Priority 3

A production function is failing but has a workaround or can be addressed during normal business hours but is prioritized over priority four issues.

Priority 4

This includes standard software support for all customer environments.
